President's Message

Greetings my fellow YMI brothers:

It is my distinct pleasure and honor to be serving as your newly elected Council President. I would like to thank Br. Paul Larson, Br. Bob Bartoli, Br. Al Colarusso, and Br. Tom Fourie who stepped up to the plate last year to share the duty of leading Council #32.

Thank you to our past president Paul Larson and his wife Julie for taking charge of planning our 2018 Christmas party. Once again, thank you to Bob and Nancy Bartoli for your dedication to planning the previous Christmas parties that have been held since I became a member.

In June I had the opportunity to attend my first Grand Council Convention in South Lake Tahoe. I was able to meet other YMI members from across the country, and I learned of all the charity work that is done through the YMI and the positive impact that our organization has on local communities. For example, when the fires in Santa Rosa occurred, the national YMI community banded together to raise money and provide aid to those who were affected by the fires.

President's Message

I highly recommend attending this annual convention to witness firsthand what we are all about as YMI members.

We are currently in the full swing of summer! The weather is hot, just like our Giants! It's time for BBQs with friends and family and enjoying the great outdoors. A friendly reminder that the #613 Picnic is coming up in August followed by the annual bocce ball tournament in September. Also, please note that the August social has been moved to Thursday the 15th due to a conflict with the All Souls' Back-to-School night.

My fellow brothers, with your help I hope to implement activities and events that will attract new members, specifically the young men in our community. My intention during my term as your president is to revitalize Council #32 with some fresh perspective and ideas. It's time bring in some new blood to energize and strengthen the YMI brotherhood.

Pro Deo, Pro Patria,,

Luis Alvarenga
President

Newsletter - Editor's Corner Time to Re-energize!

As I produce our 175th YMI Newsletter, I am reminded how each year we strive to bring in new members. Recently at All Souls, there was an announcement of the formation of a new chapter of the Knights of Columbus. While this means more support for our community, it may also be more challenging to attract men to the YMI. So, please think of ways to proactively promote YMI Council #32. We should focus on what we have done & continue to do for the our community. We need activities for new, younger members. As President Alvarenga stated " It's time to bring in some new blood to energize & strengthen the YMI brotherhood."
