President's Report

Hello YMI Brothers I hope your Valentines day went well the way you planned it, and enjoyed it with the loved one or loved ones in your lives.

Our Valentines dinner was very successful do to the fancy cooking from chefs Stephen May, Harry Licursi, and their awesome help from Andy Kosky, Pedro Barba, Steve Azevedo, Hilario Sandoval, and a couple of other guys whose names I cant remember right now but they were all a great help. I know this from watching everyone enjoy their meal so much during the night, and who wouldn't since that fancy Cordon Bleu it's not a meal you get to savor every day. I would say this was over the top.

I believe that not having the big hall available was a blessing in disguise because of the proximity of everyone to each other made this event the most sociable one we have ever had. It was really amazing to be watching everybody interacting with each other. I was surprised of all the love that I saw in that room.

I also want to say a special thanks to Bill Saltzman, Chris Young, for doing the dinner money collection from looking at the financial report it seems that for the first time we have a positive outcome on the dinners served versus the money collected, great work the both of
